VERMONT STATE POULTRY SHOW

Sixteenth Exhibition to be held in St. Albans, Jan. 14-17.

The officers of the Vermont State Poultry Association are busily at work upon the details of their sixteenth show which is to be held in City Hall, St. Albans, Jan. 14 to 17 inclusive.

There have been many assurances given from many prominent breeders of a large entrance of exhibits and it is expected that this show will eclipse any show ever held by this association which has the reputation of holding one of the best shows in New England.

D. P. Shove of Fall River, Mass., and H. B. May of Boston will again act as judges.

Over 30 silver cups are offered for competition. Among them will be a new "Wirthmore" $75 challenge cup for the best display of the show, also a $30 trophy cup for the best display of White Plymouth Rocks.

The cash specials have been largely increased over any previous show.

The Barred Plymouth Rocks have been divided into two classes the pullet and cockerel breed matings.

The premium list will be ready for distribution about Dec. 1st. Anyone desiring a copy should write to the secretary, W. J. Witters, St. Albans, Vt.

Stiff Joints
Sprains, Bruises

are relieved at once by an application of Sloan's Liniment. Don't rub, just lay on lightly.

"Sloan's Liniment has done more good than anything I have ever tried for stiff joints. I got my hand hurt so badly that I had to stop work right at first. I tried to get it better by rubbing it, but it only made it worse. I then got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and cured my hand."

WILSON WHEELER, Morris, Vt.

Good for Broken Sinews

G. G. Jones, Baldwin, L. I., writes: "I used Sloan's Liniment for broken sinews above the knee cap caused by a fall and to my great satisfaction was able to resume work in less than three weeks after the accident."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Fine for Sprain

Mr. Henry A. Vornell, of Somerset, N. H., writes: "A friend sprained his ankle so badly that it went black. He laughed when I told him that I could cure him in a week. I applied Sloan's Liniment and in four days he was working and said Sloan's was a right good Liniment."

The Yuletide Gift

A favorite poem made into a booklet makes a charming gift.

A flat leather penwiper for his desk makes an appropriate souvenir for the business man or woman.

A bodkin case with three bodkins is a useful Christmas gift for the needlewoman.

A homemade booklet of a dozen reliable chafing dish recipes will be prized by the housewife.

A blotter, the upper side made of a picture postcard of yourself, is a simple yet valued gift for an intimate friend.

Christmas.

Christmas comes but once a year. Let's enjoy it while it's here. Eat your turkey without fear. Never pause to shed a tear. Should you feel a trifle queer After wings or running gear. Neck and blubber's nose y-fere. Take a pill a Pileck Thyeant. Ho who never dares to eat. Waitles, cakes or sausage meat. Nothing sour, nothing sweet; Lives a week on shredded corn. Never smoked since he was born; Water's all he ever drinks; Living low, he hiesly thinks. Christmas turkey, Christmas pie, Christmas pudding, Christmas sigh! Merry Christmas! Merry week! Happy New Year! Very meek!
